Schmedlip Dopes Pushcart Relays

By JOHN CARTWRIGHT

In an effort to aid those eager to dope the Pushcart Relays this afternoon, the Spartan Daily's ace tout Honest John Schmedlip, has come up with some of his astute observations.

FIRST HEAT—

Kappa Alpha—Showed well in time trials; will use wheels for race.

Kappa Sigma Kappa—has sacrificed speed for originality.

Theta Mu Sigma—Thwarted in their attempt to use a stripped-down toilet bowl.

Chi Omega—Couldn't lure track team so will push it themselves.

Alpha Eta Rho—Modified jet propulsion. Dangerous if they get in the lead.

SECOND HEAT—

Sojourners—Complete collapse possible—and very probable.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon—Rumored to have a souped-up coaster wagon.

Delta Sigma Gamma—Pushers train on beer (eastern).

Delta Theta Omega—Hardware their handicap.

Alpha Omicron Pi—This might be the outfit with the hydromatic broom stick.

THIRD HEAT—

Silver Sabre—Likes the distance—car and driver will hug curves.

Delta Upsilon—Trains on beer (western).

A Chi O—Trains on Delta Upsilon.

Theta Chi—Refused to bother with time trials.

Delta Zeta—You'll have to see this to believe it.

Art Museum Buys Ceramic Roosters

A pair of ceramic roosters, made by Mr. James Lovera, Art instructor at San Jose State college, have been purchased by the Cincinnati Museum of Art for display in that institution.

Dean's Assistant Returns to School

Mrs. Izetta Pritchard, assistant to the dean of women, will return to campus today after attending a Soroptimist convention in Phoenix, Ariz.

Zeller, Sills Report On AWS Convention; SJSC High Nationally

"AWS at SJSC ranks high nationally in comparison with the activities offered by other colleges and universities represented recently at the national AWS convention in New Mexico," reported Marilyn Zeller.

Miss Zeller and Melba Sills were official delegates to the convention held at the beginning of this quarter at the University of New Mexico. They presented their report of the national conference at the regular AWS meeting Wednesday.

More Activities at SJSC

Miss Zeller said that AWS here offers more activities in school service, leadership training, and social activities for women students than does the average school.

"California had the largest number of delegates at the convention," Miss Zeller stated, and casually added, "also the prettiest." Approximately 200 women students attended the convention and about 100 advisers.

"The main emphasis of the meetings was placed on interesting more women in activities by having a more diversified program which would interest all campus women in some way," Miss Zeller remarked.

The Intercollegiate Associated Women Students, of which SJSC is a member, is a growing organization, and more groups throughout the country are becoming interested in it, Miss Zeller said. Seven new groups were added to the roster at this convention.

IAWS Importance Recognized

"They are beginning to recognize the importance of belonging to the IAWS," she said, "which seeks to coordinate women's activities and strengthen women's organizations."

The next IAWS convention will be held in two years at Purdue university in Indiana. A regional convention is being planned for next April at the University of Oklahoma, at which SJSC will be represented, according to Barbara Brewster, AWS president.

At the regular AWS meeting, plans were discussed for the barbecue for new women students to be held May 4 at 5:30 p.m. at the campus barbecue pit. Hamburgers, cokes, ice cream, and salad will compose the menu. Phil Ward will act as chief chef.

Trackster's Croon

A musical aggregation headed by Woody Linn will perform at the track booth in the outer quad today at 12:30. Stu Inman and Irish Casey are members of this trio, quartet, quintet or sextette, depending upon the number of budding impresarios present.

'Y' Group To Visit Jewish Synagogue

The Jewish synagogue on University avenue will be visited by the Student Y pilgrimage group tonight, according to Don Eldridge, chairman. Iser L. Freund is the rabbi of the synagogue.

Anyone interested in obtaining information concerning services, symbols and customs of a Jewish synagogue should make the pilgrimage, Eldridge said.

All students who plan to make the visit are to be at the Y lounge tonight at 7:30.

Cirigliano, Schaeffer Opponents in Finals

By BOB JOHNSTON

Dick Cirigliano and Don Schaeffer, victors in Wednesday's primary election, will head the ballot in today's race for the ASB presidential post. The polls will be located in the east end of the Student Union and will be open 9-4.

Phil Bray and Bob Madsen will vie for the vice-president's position. Bray took a seemingly commanding lead, polling 515 votes in the primary, but Madsen closed fast with 369 votes to force the issue to a run-off election.

In the race for treasurer, Bob Seal and Bill Schulz survived the primary, and meet again tomorrow. Seal held a slim lead of 49 votes in Wednesday's balloting. He garnered 549 votes to an even 500 for Schulz.

Spartans who visited the polls in the primary numbered close to 1600, considerably short of last year's 2225 ballots.

Chief Justice Tom Eddy expressed satisfaction with the operation of Wednesday's polls. He was also pleased with the Student Court and Student Council, who worked feverishly to count the ballots after the polls closed.

The Spartan Daily urges all students to go to the polls and vote for the candidate of their choice. The 1600 people who voted Wednesday represent only one-quarter of the potential voters of the college.

Fresno State Is New Meeting Site

A meeting to discuss standardization of business equipment in all California state colleges will be held at Fresno State college today instead of at San Francisco State college as previously announced.

Dr. Irving K. Christiansen will represent San Jose State college Commerce department at the meeting.

Nancy Rundle and Marian Swanson were appointed co-chairmen of the AWS Fashion show to be held in the near future. A working committee is discussing plans for the coming event which will be given in conjunction with Spardi Gras.

Reporters Attend CIO Guild Dinner

Mr. William Miles, editor of the CIO News California edition, spoke before journalism students at a dinner given by the San Jose Newspaper Guild in Voight's restaurant recently.

Nineteen students attended this event given to acquaint them with the advantages of associate membership in the American Newspaper Guild.

Newsman who gave short talks and answered questions were: Mr. Bob Brown, executive secretary of the San Francisco-Oakland Newspaper Guild; Mr. Harry Farrell, reporter for the San Jose News; Mr. Frank Sauliere, president of the San Jose Newspaper Guild; and Mr. Vincent Gates, editor of the San Jose Guildsmen.

Above is a scene from autumn quarter's Senior Overnight. The last one for the class of '49 will be held at Asilomar-by-the-

Sea May 21-22. Seniors who want to attend must register by 2:30 in the Library arch, and pay the full $3.75 or one dollar deposit. Faculty advisers will be Drs. Rhodes and McCallum and Mr. Pisano. Frank Hearne is in charge of transportation.

"Yankee" Rates High With Moptop

Any resemblance between the movie at the California theater and a story by the late Mark Twain called "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" is purely co-incidental.

The picture, however, isn't half bad—but it needs Bob Hope. The star, of course, is Der Bingle, Bing Crosby. As usual old Bing croons his way through the picture, but this time receives very little in the way of a supporting cast.

William Bendix, as the squire of the "Connecticut Yankee" (Crosby) who gets knocked unconscious and wakes up in the days of King Arthur, plays "Reiley" better. Sir Cedric Hardwicke as King Arthur does a commendable job, but Rhonda Fleming as Crosby's love life is rather below par. The movie, despite some swirly sequences, still remains clever, amusing, and good entertainment.

A second feature called "My Own True Love," is, to coin a phrase, "strictly for the birds."

Mass Cutting Plot Revealed as Prof's Slight Time Error

It seems that the proverbial axiom about professors being absent minded is still true, at any rate with Dr. Boris Gregory, professor of Modern Languages.

As it happens, Dr. Gregory has an 11:30 class on Tuesdays and Thursdays, but does not check his watch for the correct time.

At any rate, Dr. Gregory recently went to his 11:30 class and found that no one but he had arrived. Thereupon, he appears to have accused his entire class of cutting. This was a "conspiracy" against him and "would not be tolerated." So the good doctor began looking for his absent students.

No students could be found but when he opened the door of a Spanish class session he saw some of his missing pupils. Dr. Gregory is reported to have called in that he did not want his students and that the other instructor could have them.

Still no missing class! Grumbling, Dr. Gregory returned to his office.

Mr. L. C. Newby, head of the department, asked Dr. Gregory if he was sure he had the correct day, whereupon Gregory replied that he was sure it was the right day. After all, this was "Thursday" and the class was to be at 11:30.

Mr. Newby pointed out that it was not yet that time and that his class wasn't to be held for at least another half hour.

Thus it passes that students are not the only ones who forget, especially where classes are concerned.

Trading Post's

By

AL WILLIAMSON

We see that the sales of Fredrick Wakeman's novel, "Shore Leave," first published in 1944, will jump in Everett, Washington. Seems the official weekly publication of Everett junior college, the "Clipper," has reconsidered the novel, calling it "raw, human, and realistic."

No doubt the sales will jump in San Jose also.

Among other notable things, the Clipper uses a rather nice style of characterization in its feature articles. When the Clipper wants to distinguish between the common place, and the outstanding, it does so in this manner:

Unique Style

And here we have Joe Smutt, who once lost his thumb nail.

Who would not agree that Joe Smutt has been adequately characterized? We believe the Clipper has stumbled upon a style unique among college newspapers. And what a relief it is after years of the old method.

Why not write feature stories using the Clipper's style? It would save a great deal of space. Take a feature story about a meeting of the student council, for example:

Last night the student council met. The council is the official student body governing organization. Composed of elected students, the council meets once a week.

High Octane Issue

This year the council is composed of Joe Smutt, who once lost his thumb nail; Mary Slydig, who wears green sweaters; Pete Uphill, who likes dogs; Jane Flapper, whose father has a garden; Bob Bistro, who collects things; and Molly Veto, who likes apples.

Last night, the council, as is its custom, debated pending legislation. A spectator, Ralph Biplane, who likes girls, said he thought the Aero association, which meets Thursdays, should be allowed to buy more high octane gasoline, which makes cars and aeroplanes go.

Chairman Smutt, who has grown a new thumbnail, told Biplane he was out of order. Biplane, who likes blondes in particular, sat down.

Frat Neighbor

Banging his gavel, Smut then said, "I recommend we appoint Doris Upshades, who eats breakfast each morning at seven, chairman of the Ladies Committee, which meets Wednesdays."

The council, which sits around a table, then appointed Miss Upshades, who lives next to a fraternity house, to the chairmanship.

What a great improvement this style is over the old, obsolete method of feature writing! Congratulations to the Clipper, which prints things, for a journalistic improvement of far-reaching consequences. The Spartan Daily, which also prints things, salutes you!

Thrust and Parry

Spinners Spin Alone

Dear Thrust and Parry:

As representatives of the Spartan Spinner folk dance organization, we wish to correct certain impressions that may have arisen from an article that appeared in the Spartan Daily on April 26.

First of all, the article implied that the Spartan Spinners are not at the present time affiliated with the Co-Rec committee. This is not the case! During the fall quarter Co-Rec asked the Spinners to join with them for the mutual benefit of both organizations. For three years previous to Co-Rec's request, the folk dance club had been independent and self-sustaining.

The Spinners joined Co-Rec with the understanding that they would not lose either their identity or autonomy. They agreed to cooperate with Co-Rec by teaching folk dancing during Co-Rec functions and by allowing Co-Rec to use the Women's Gym during Spartan Spinner meeting nights.

On the other hand, Co-Rec agreed to aid the Spinners financially when, and if, the necessity arose.

The apparent lack of harmony between the two groups can possibly be ascribed to Co-Rec's disinterest in folk dancing, which is the contribution the Spinners are in a position to make.

Secondly, the Spartan Spinner constitution has absolutely no bearing on the misunderstanding with Co-Rec. The present constitution was approved by the Student Council when it was submitted to that body during Fall quarter, '48. This constitution is now in process of revision to comply with the new ruling of the Student Council.

The Student Council has seen fit to offer the Spinners two courses of action: 1. Remain in Co-Rec and lose your identity, or 2. Resume former independent status and lose ASB financial backing. The Spartan Spinners have chosen the latter alternative.

Sincerely yours,

Jack Golden ASB 2015

1949-50 ASB Cards Go On Sale Aug. 15

Associated Student body cards for the 1949-1950 season will be available August 15 for $15, according to Graduate Manager William Felse.

This will give old ASB card holders more than a month's notice, Mr. Felse said. He stressed the importance of applying for cards as soon as possible, since they will be sent out on a first-come, first-served basis.

Mr. Felse hopes that a recurrence of last fall's unfortunate misunderstanding can be averted. "Somehow several of the students were under the impression that ASB cards would be sold at the gate during the first game, and they showed up an hour before the game to purchase their cards," he said. He pointed out that a great amount of time is involved in processing the cards.

Students wishing to attend the SJSC-Santa Clara game must enclose an extra dollar for their tickets, which will be sent out with the cards. An additional amount of 10 cents must be enclosed to defray insurance and mailing charges.

Veterans wanting to attend the Santa Clara game must come to the Graduate Manager's office in room 16 for their tickets, which will be sold to them for the regular price of $3, $2 of which will be refunded to them when they get their ASB cards under veterans' provisions.

Mr. Felse explained that the University of New Mexico game September 10, and the Stanford game September 17 can be attended on old ASB cards.

Dr. MacQuarrie Speaks at IA Dinner

President T. W. MacQuarrie spoke informally to over 200 industrial arts majors and members of the industrial arts faculty at a recent barbecue dinner, according to Eugene Mercuri, Epsilon Pi Tau publicity chairman.

Mr. Hartley Jackson, associate professor of industrial arts, introduced members of the faculty to students. Also featured at the dinner was a magician, "Herman the Great."

Three Crown productions, local movie studio, took several shots of the party, Mercuri said.

Mr. Benjamin W. Spaulding, associate professor of industrial arts, barbecued the steaks. Members of Epsilon Pi Tau, industrial arts fraternity, provided refreshments.

English 'A' Failures Increase, AAUP Says

More than 70 per cent of those taking the entrance examination in English at San Jose State college fail, according to a recent faculty report. The percentage of failures has been increasing, a condition which prompted the survey by a committee of the American Association of University Professors.

"The chief function of the English department is to correct this condition, but one department can't accomplish everything," said Dr. Raymond W. Barry, English department head. "It seems to me that if all departments would co-operate fully, we would be aided very much."

According to Dr. Barry, the recommendation of the committee to have a liaison teacher is a sound proposition. This teacher would contact all departments. Department heads would refer students who are particularly poor in their English usage to him. These students would then take remedial work.

"The students must be made more conscious of correct English in all their college work. They should not merely be careful in English courses and revert to their errors in other classes," Dr. Barry concluded.

PL 16 Vets Must Study in Summer

All Public Law 16 students will be required to continue their training in summer school, announced the Veterans' Information office yesterday. Exceptions to this are those vets excused for medical reasons or those unable to obtain a normal program of courses in line with their approved objective.

All P.L. 16 students, continued the announcement, are required to report to the San Jose Veterans Administration office, 439 S. First street, to make arrangements for their summer programs. Deadline for this report has been set for May 20, but promptness is urged.

Next year's officers were elected by members of the Pan American club at a recent meeting.

New officers include: Betty Tyson, president; Anita Wien, vice-president; Carlota Wien, secretary-treasurer; Leonard Teshera, corresponding secretary; Miguel Rivera, publicity chairman.

Current president, Louis A. Vieira, stated that "the Pan American league again wishes to extend its invitation to anyone interested in joining the group," and urges that they do so at once. The only requirement is that a prospective member be a registered student and holder of an ASB card.

The organization recently sponsored a Pan American day on campus in observance of the sixtieth year of the founding of the Pan American union.

Spartans-Gauchos Clash on Diamond

Washington Square horsehiders perched on top of the CCAA baseball circuit, left yesterday morning for Santa Barbara where they will battle the Gauchos in a three-game set, one contest being slated for this afternoon, with a twin bill on tap for tomorrow afternoon.

The Channel City entry will face the three Spartan pitching aces, Ralph Romero, Pete Mesa, and Bob Santos, who all turned in impressive wins last weekend over San Diego State. Ray Jacobus and Al Van Aman will be held in reserve.

Baring last minute changes, Coach Walt Williams will start Dean Galt, Tom Okagaki, Don Lopes and Will Conklin in the infield, and Bob Wuesthoff, Earl Wright and Mel Stein in the garden. Pete Denevi and Dave McCarty will share catching duties.

Santa Barbara has a record of 2 wins and 4 losses this season, and are holding down fifth place in the league. Bub Gmur is pacing the Gaucho batters with a .500 mark, followed by "Ancient" Cy Williams with .450 and Dan Kutch with .400.

Wuesthoff for the Spartans is leading the local club in hitting with a .500 average. He banged out five hits against the Aztecs.

FINAL HOME APPEARANCE

Spike Fans Are Due For Full Afternoon

Co-captains and seniors Steve O'Meara and Woody Linn, performing for the last time on the Spartan's home track, lead their teammates against a strong Fresno State aggregation tomorrow afternoon. The special stripper sprint, scheduled to begin at 1:05 p.m., starts the day off, with field events set for 1:30 and races getting under way at 2 p.m.

Winter-coached track teams have lost but one meet to Flint Hanner's tracksters and that by the relay in 1946. The Spartans, although still recovering from a good size list of injuries and several individual slumps, are rated underdogs in some track circles. Evidently they enjoy this rating because of a 65 1-3 to 65 2-3 loss to College of Pacific—the Tigers having a recent 71-60 win over San Jose.

The Bulldogs are led by an excellent hurdler in the person of Merle Martin.

Coach Winter believes that the clash may easily be decided by the relay. However, the co-captains and the team, smarting from the COP defeat, would like to "ice" the meet before the last event and intend to take the necessary steps to do so.

By doing this it is possible that the potentially great relay team—with the pressure off—will come through with its season's best effort. As this story goes to press, Coach Winter's relay team pick is Bob Herrick, Stu Inman, Fred Mangini and either L. W. Hall or Bob Crowe. The latter, marked for duty in the 100 and 220-yard dashes, is in the last stages of recovery from a leg injury.

Dore Purdy appears ready for his best mile effort. Against Pacific he ran 4:23.6—good for second place—and that minus a shoe during the last 500 yards.

DORE PURDY, crack San Jose distance runner who should pick up plenty of points in the mile and two-mile against Fresno State tomorrow. Purdy has a top time of 4:23.6 in the shorter event.

Frosh Baseball and Track Teams Clash With Papoose Squads on Palo Alto Farm

Baseball

San Jose State's yearling baseball team will travel to Palo Alto tomorrow, where they will meet the Stanford frosh in a 10 a.m. contest.

Coach Tom Cureton has nominated either Larry Fernandez or Duane Hall to do the chucking. These men are former infielders who were moved to the hill when pitching reinforcements were needed.

Track

Spartan frosh thinclads, ending their season and hoping to preserve their undefeated record, tangle with the once beaten Stanford Papooses, in Indian territory at 3 p.m. this afternoon.

The Indian babes lost to Stockton JC in a close 67-64 meet, but put the skids to the combined Santa Rosa JC and San Francisco City College cinder squads, 80-51. In the latter meet the Indian first-year men showed power in the mile, 100, 120 high hurdle, 220, 220 low hurdles, relay, shot, high jump and discus.

Spartlet Coach Howard Overhouse announced recently that he expected to go against the "Little Indians" at near full strength. Warren Eisenberg, Frank Buxton, Bob Jones, Dick Sorem and Clay Stapleton are a few of the men Overhouse expects to knock the "boys from the Farm" out of the scoring column with.

Home Season Closes Tonight for Mermen

Pacific Swimmers Favored Over SJS

The "Big Meet" of the San Jose State swimming season takes place tonight when the COP mermen meet the Spartans at the local pool in the Men's Gym at 8 p.m.

The Tiger swimmers are undefeated in CCAA competition this year and will be the favorites over Coach Charlie Walker's squad. COP has one of its best teams in years, having beaten the Olympic Club twice and only losing to Stanford.

The Pacific 400 yard relay team broke the pool record at the Olympic Club and are set to improve upon this mark. Chris Kjeldsen's Bengal sprinters are paced by Bobby Steel and Don Driggs.

The Spartan team is out to prove that winning the CCAA championship from Pacific last year was no fluke, and they intend to go all out in their last dual meet of the season.

Top man on Walker's squad is Captain Pat McConnell, ace diver who has yet to be defeated in dual meet springboard competition. Other Spartan swimmers who can be counted on for points are Earl Guisness, Ray Bryant, Dick Lebedeff and George Sheets.

San Jose Netters Lose to Gauchos

San Jose State's travelling tennis squad dropped its first CCAA dual meet as Santa Barbara won 5-4 on the Gaucho courts Wednesday.

The loss gives the Spartans a conference record of three victories and one loss, that to the Gauchos. Today and tomorrow the netters will compete in the annual Ojai tournament.

Results of the Santa Barbara meet:

Bob Wright (SB) def. Chet Bulwa (SJ) 8-6, 7-5.
Alan Cobbe (SB) def. Gene Franco (SJ) 9-7, 6-3.
Ed Terry (SJ) def. Don Tully (SB) 6-2, 7-5.
Walter Field (SB) def. Bob Phelps (SJ) 6-0, 3-6, 6-1.
Keith Nelson (SJ) def. Larry Wather (SB) 7-5, 6-1.

Soph Council Meets on Tuesday

Members of the sophomore council recently voted to hold their regular meetings in the Student Union on Tuesday afternoons at 4:30, according to Bob Madsen, president of the sophomore class.

At their regular session, the council took up the matter of a new place for their meetings and decided that the Student Union provided a less formal meeting place for members of the class council and the class.

Dave Down, class representative to the Student Council, reported on the approximate cost of building a four-class bulletin board near the Roosevelt redwood tree, north of the Library arch.

Other plans discussed included the sophomore council party to be held Tuesday at the campus barbecue pits at 5:30, reports from the joint council meeting for Lower Division day, and continued discussion on the part that the sophomore class will play in Spardi Gras.

Sophomores Hold Barbecue Tuesday

A barbecue will be held in conjunction with the next sophomore council meeting, Tuesday afternoon at 5:30, according to Beverly Etter, chairman of the council party committee.

Miss Etter emphasized that anyone planning to go must sign up in the Graduate Manager's office before noon today.

All members of the sophomore council and class are urged to attend, announced Bob Madsen, class president. Madsen described the barbecue as a chance for sophomores to get together and "chat" over the coming sophomore events.

The regular council meeting will follow the barbecue which will be held at the campus barbecue pits. Hot dogs, potato salad and other foods will be served. The price will be 50 cents a person, Miss Etter said.

The entire meeting and supper will be over by 6:30 or 7 p.m.

Lower Division day festivities will be discussed as will a social meeting of the sophomore class, said Madsen.
